	Lesson outline	In this lesson we will explore the front cover of the book 'Mirror' by Jeannie Baker and use this to make inferences. We will learn about the author and the context of the story.	In this lesson we will infer from images in the text. We will make comparisons between the Moroccan and Australian families and their morning routine.	In this lesson we will explore images of the families' journeys through the landscapes of Australia and Morocco. We will draw comparisons between the two countries and make predictions as to where the characters are going.	In this lesson we will explore the images and compare the shopping experience in Morocco and Australia. We will use the images to identify similarities, differences and links between the stories.	In this lesson we will explore the images to make comparisons between the families' evening routines. We will consider the themes, messages and what we can learn from the story.
	Extra Notes	You will be looking at a new text. Make notes about any new words you are unfamiliar with.	You will need a pencil and paper to write down your answers to questions.	You will need a pencil and paper to write down your answers to questions.	You will need a pencil and paper to write down your answers to questions.	You will need a pencil and paper to write down your answers to questions.
